Hi Kirby,

Apologies for not getting back to you about this sooner: I've been running behind schedule for weeks and am now away visiting elderly relatives, so only slowly catching up.

You'd be welcome to quote Exeter Observer in any way you think appropriate provided, of course, any material is attributed. If you want to link directly to a particular article, we could create a dedicated shortlink (like this <https://exeterobserver.org/carbon-budget/>) instead of you having to use the full URL, which is often very long (for SEO). Or feel free to include an EO home page link if you prefer. And, of course, we'll be covering both the Haven Banks and Water Lane developments as they progress.

I should say that EO is published by a Community Benefit Society which depends on its members for support. Please don't feel obliged to do so, but if you would like to you could also include a link to our membership page at <https://exeterobserver.org/join/>.

We'd be very grateful for (digital) copies of any promo material you do create which quotes EO: it's always good for us to be able to evidence ways in which the community value our work.

You'd also be welcome to some generic EO flyers for your stalls. I should be back in Exeter by the weekend, so could drop some off if you'd like.

Out of interest, are you targeting the Haven Banks bowling alley/Matalan redevelopment application in the first instance? I'd assumed we wouldn't see anything concrete from Water Lane DMC until later, but I haven't caught up with either project for a while so I may be out of the loop. I'd be very grateful for any info re. timing you may have extracted from either developer.

With all best wishes,

Martin
